

Here Is Another Example Of The Duplicity Of The Appeal Board

According to the Appeal Board our client's appeal was upheld on the 1st of March 2012. This was communicated to us in a letter dated the 4th of July 2012 received on the 12th of October 2012.

Strangely enough, we obtained a court order for the appeal to be upheld on the 24th of April 2012. Why is it that the Appeal Board did not object to us obtaining a court order if they have already granted the appeal and why is there such a big discrepancy in the dates between when they made the decision, when they dispatch the letter and when we receive it? You can draw your own conclusions.
